

1991 Big Butte Challenge

Saturday, 13 July – A New Sponsor and a New 5K Course.

Butte's YMCA became the main sponsor of this year's Big Butte Challenge, and the Y's Phil Grimm took up the event's directing reins.

John Willard's time of 18:40 and Susan Kaluza's 21:36 established course records for the new 5K course.

Ray Matteson won the men's 11K in 46:40, ahead of Dave Mueller (47:51) who placed second in the race for the fifth consecutive time, while Anne Sullivan, at 60 minutes flat, was the first of two women in the race.
